

GA-HERO

Friday, April 24, 2015

Registration at 10:00, Meeting 10:30 am —1:30 pm

GA-HERO Welcomes Retiree Council Complementary Roles

Georgia Association of Higher Education
Retiree Organizations

Dorothy Zinsmeister, Presenter: Emerita Professor, Kennesaw State

John Bugge, Presenter: Emeritus Professor, Emory

Dave Ewert, Presenter: Emeritus Professor, Georgia State

Host

Georgia State University

Box Lunch $12

Indian Creek Lodge
900 South Indian
Creek Drive
Stone Mountain, GA

Dorothy, John and Dave will present and discuss the roles of the University System of Georgia Retiree Council and GA-HERO. The GA-HERO mentoring program for schools forming a retiree organization and those with retiree organizations wanting to expand their activities will be discussed.

Join GA-HERO: We who work with retired faculty and staff in Georgia know what a rich resource our retirees are for our colleges and universities, not to mention our wider communities. What we may not realize is how many challenges, joys, and accomplishments we share and how these experiences can help extend the resources of our institutions. See ga-hero.org and contact Dave Ewert.

Directions: Take I-285 to Memorial Drive exit. Turn east on Memorial Drive and proceed about eight tenths of a mile. Turn right on Rockbridge Road. Turn right at the first traffic light on South Indian Creek Drive. The Indian Creek Lodge and Recreation Area is approximately one mile on the left, on property hidden by trees and marked by a GSU sign. The Indian Creek MARTA Station is one third of a mile west of the lodge.

RSVP

Dave Ewert, dewert@gsu.edu, 404-250-0001